

Back in 1980, Whole Foods Market opened a store in Austin, Texas. Today they are the world's leader in natural and organic foods, with more than 270 stores in North America and the United Kingdom.

Whole Foods Market seeks out the finest natural and organic foods available, maintain the strictest quality standards in the industry and have an unshakeable commitment to sustainable agriculture.

Whole Foods Market searches for the highest quality, least processed, most flavorful and natural foods possible because they believe that food in its purest state – unadulterated by artificial additives, sweeteners, colorings and preservatives – is the best tasting and most nutritious food there is.
